

JASPER V. GOMEZ

AI Management System Lead Auditor in the Making

ABOUT ME

A Computer Science student with a strong interest in Cyber Governance, Risk Management, and Compliance (GRC). Through hands-on experience in operations management and data privacy compliance, I've developed the ability to understand organizational context and support business continuity, reputation, and risk-aware growth. Alongside my GRC background, I am passionate about Human Factors and Ergonomics. I enjoy building machine learning prototypes and analytical frameworks, and I'm motivated to apply these skills to enhance worker safety, improve workflow efficiency, and optimize workplace systems.
